Leading Collaborative Change

How to Mobilise People and Organisations for Collaborative Success

When your projects and initiatives pull together a range of people, engage with potential partners and have a due date of yesterday, you can't afford to get off on the wrong foot!

How do you reduce the risk of going over time, over budget and falling short of expectations? It comes down to the following foundations:

- Instilling the right mindset and skills
- Creating buy-in and trust with group members; and
- Clarity of purpose and managing competing interests

Phil draws on his experience facilitating complex team, project and partnership collaborations to provide the guidance your people need.

SESSION OVERVIEW

In this insightful session, audiences discover:

- How collaboration delivers high performance
- Case studies of successful teams and projects
- The 3 foundations for effective collaboration

This presentation equips your people with guidance they can use again and again to improve their team and project effectiveness.

- In person or online
- Keynote, workshops and master classes
- Tailored working sessions
- Panel discussion / participation

ABOUT PHIL

Phil left a comfortable corporate career where he oversaw $50 billion of investments to help companies go beyond symbolic acts of charity and help address social and environmental challenges through core and profitable business.

In 2013, he was invited to join Harvard Business School's Professor Michael Porter and Mark Kramer in Boston to advance the 'shared value' field where he's a leading practitioner and author, recently publishing the book, Connecting Profit With Purpose.

Phil's clients include small-medium enterprises through to multi-national corporations and everything in between, and has extensive experience working with not-for-profit organisations, peak bodies and governments.

As a speaker, Phil distills years of experience into actionable learning, making use of storytelling, audience interaction and a splash of dry humour - you can view his testimonials to see what his clients are saying.

Outside of work he is enthusiastic about coffee, chocolate and trail running!
